

Ethics Policy

The editorial board may reject manuscripts if the author's work is not according to ethical framework and found to be plagiarized. Each and every paper is checked while using plagiarism detector software. Any form of Plagiarism cannot be tolerated as it violates basic principles of scholarship. Word to word copying of another's writing, paraphrasing someone else's ideas without acknowledging the author, providing false data and false citation, double submission of the same paper simultaneously to more journals etc... are considered an act of Plagiarism.
